VOL. IX.

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, SATURDAY, OCT. 13TH, 1888.

No. 50.

TELEGRAPHIC.

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.
R. S. White's official marriage in Cardwell is 129.

Thursday, November 16th has been proclaimed Thanksgiving Day.
Pugley of the Regina & Long lake railway is here. He says the rails will be laid as far as Saskatoon before next midsummer.
The Temperance Convention of Saskatchewan is seeking to appeal a test case to the supreme court direct. The magistrates dismissed the company's application with costs. Sir John thinks the liberal party is committed to form a political or commercial union of Canada with the United States. He thinks the next elections will be fought on these lines.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 9.

Wheat is still advancing. Grain prices are $1.10 to $1.12. Flour has advanced 10 cents a sack all over the province. Millers will not pay more than 95 cents.

U. S. senator Blair has offered a resolution calling upon the president for information as to the trial for treason conviction and execution in Canada of Louis Riel, who claimed to have been a naturalized citizen of the United States. It was laid over for a day.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 10.

Great damage has been done by floods in New Brunswick.

Two or three inches of snow on the ground in Montreal on October 9th.
Henry L. Peters will have charge of public buildings in the Northwest with headquarters at Regina.

EDMONTON, Oct. 8.

Weather fine; No sign of Wiggins' storm yet.

The Gaz tie to be issued in a few days will probably contain a proclamation calling the Northwest Assembly to meet about November 1st.

A. D. OSBORNE, postmaster at Edmonton, procured from an Owen Sound nursery in the spring of '86 a number of raspberry slips. They have proven to be perfectly hardy and bore fruit for the first time this season, and are still bearing. He got at the same time blackberry slips, but all of these but one froze at the first winter, and the second winter settled it. The same season he tried the red grape currant. Five out of twelve plants are now alive and doing very well, seeming to be getting more hardy the older they grow. Out of twelve Lee's prolific red currant procured in '86, 11 are now alive and bore fruit this year. These bushes have all been protected in winter by barrels chafed to prevent injury by the mice.

On August 25th the BULLETIN mentioned that scarcely any tomatoes had formed on the garden at that date. Last Thursday night's frost killed the tomato vines in town and on Friday, Inspector Casey gathered half a bushel of fine tomatoes, many of them ripe, and A. Taylor also gathered a quantity of excellent fruit from vines upon which not a single tomato had formed on August 25th. The BULLETIN's garden also formed a ripe and good tomato picked this morning, October 13th, together with a quantity of sound green ones.

In pursuance of action taken at a meeting of the officers and directors of the Edmonton agricultural society some weeks ago respecting the letting of police contracts in this district, an answer to which from Fred White, controller of the force was received last week, a note was sent from a meeting of the officers and directors of the society held on Wednesday evening to the police commissioner offering, if he would meet them, to go on with and prove the charges that had been made. He declined the invitation.

Was attending the Battle River treaty payment P. Daly secured the head of the buffalo killed about six weeks ago south of Battle River, from the Indian who killed it. The Christian name of the Indian is Josina. He said that he saw only the buffalo that he killed, but he saw the tracks of a small band from which this one had branched off. The head is a very fine one, the horns perfect and the hair black and wavy. Mr. Daly also secured a very fine red deer's head, with five point antlers.

In accordance with notice given last week winners of first prizes in cereals and vegetables who have not already done so are requested to furnish the secretary of the society with samples of the prize articles in time to be sent east for exhibition by next Thursday's stage.

A LITTLE threshing has already been done and next week it will be general.

The raft of timber for the Battledore bridge, 150,000 feet, from Moore & McDowell's limit reached Edmonton on Thursday. Owing to the lateness of the season and low stage of water it was decided not to proceed any further, and to take the timber out of the water for the winter.

The police have decided to establish a post at St. Albert. A lot has been purchased, and the postmaster Mr. Kennedy's store south of the bridge, and buildings are now being erected. There will be accommodation for a married non-commissioned officer and about seven men with stabling for five horses.

The police cat contract for Fort Saskatchewan has not been awarded to St. Geo. Jellett at 68c. His tender has been refused, and the contract is being peddled around in small quantities at the Edmonton contract price, 58c. The police commissioner may not be much at engineering the arrest of criminals but he is sudden death at getting cheap cats.

There are carpenter critics who assert that such talents should shine more brightly in a corner grocery than at the head of an important department of the public service.

FIELDBERS & EDMISTON have been awarded the police beef contract for Edmonton and Fort Saskatchewan. Contract to run until October 1st, 1889.

HARVEST HOME.

A HARVEST home festival, got up by the ladies of the congregation was, held in the Methodist church on Monday evening. Although the notice given was short and the weather of the evening very unfavorable, there was a good attendance. Tea was served in a temporary erection near the church from six to 8 p. m. The church was tastefully decorated with emblems of grain and fruits suitable to the occasion. The choir was taken by Rev. Geo. H. Long, pastor of the church at 8 p. m. Rev. W. R. Bradley of the Presbyterian church was called upon for an address and spoke briefly. Rev. D. G. McQueen, was also called upon but had not received sufficient notice to allow of his preparing an address. Rev. John McDougall, of Morley, spoke of the changes that had taken place in Edmonton, as evidenced by such occasions as the present, from the time when he first saw it 25 years ago. He described life in the old days, and spoke in glowing terms of the possibilities of the future. Rev. Dr. Sutherland, of Toronto, spoke at length, dwelling most interestingly on the present standing and future prospects of Canada as a nation, and forcibly on the necessity of cultivating a national spirit and the means of doing so. The important part to be taken by the Northwest in that nation made it of the highest necessity that now in the beginning of its career a start should be made in all matters in the right direction. It was to the general welfare that the churches instead of standing apart should act together. A number of votes of thanks were passed and the proceedings concluded by the singing of the doxology and Rev. Dr. Sutherland pronouncing the benediction. The musical part of the entertainment was as follows: Opening hymn, "All people that on earth do dwell" Dr. McInnis, organ. Choir, anthem, "Praise waiteth for Thee," Dr. McInnis, organ. Mr. Fortin, solo, "Ashamed of Christ," Mrs. Gray, organ. Choir, anthem, "Thou crownest the year," Dr. McInnis, organ. Mr. Becher, solo, "Hark the glad sound" Mrs. Gray, organ. Choir, anthem, "Deus Miseratur," Dr. McInnis, organ. Mr. Raymer, solo, "One sweetly solemn thought," Dr. McInnis, organ.

Judgement for plaintiff for $60, costs and counsel fee of $10. The plaintiff in person and R. Strachan for plaintiff C. H. Connon for defendant.
